Dear Leuschner:

I am enclosing a copy of Wells salary statement. I must beg your pardon for not sending a statement sooner. I explained to you Abe brought it to Chicago and you or Semler were not there, he decided not to take the matter up with Curtis.

The trade was made in a hurry, and I was a little upset at the time, which accounts for my oversight. I was expecting so much from Wells and was so disappointed when he let me down. If he had given me his best I may not have taken the $150.00 from him. It would have been worth his fare from California to have him on the team in his old time form. However when things worked out as they did, I decided to take the loan back.

I am sure the statement is clear to you. If there is anything you do not understand get in touch with me.

Very Truly Yours

PS. His W2 form shows he claims 2 dependents, himself and one other.
